

Write a letter of encouragement to yourself to read on a bad day.

What would you say to yourself to make you feel better? Focus on the qualities about yourself that you admire the most.

Journaling Instructions: Take 10 minutes at the start of your day to think about this journaling prompt and write whatever comes to mind. Journaling is an opportunity to reflect on your own personal experiences.