WHERE TO SEEK SUPPORT AT BARNARD

ISSUE OF...

DISRESPECT
- Make an appointment at Furman
- Speak with your professor or TA
- Consult with a 3rd party: CEP staff, advisor, or trusted professor
- Speak with the department chair
- Contact the Office of Non-Discrimination and Title IX

ACCESSIBILITY
- Financial concerns
- Ability concerns
- Speak with your professor or TA
- Consult with the Office of Financial Aid
- Speak with class dean
- Speak with department chair
- Contact the Office of Non-Discrimination and Title IX
- Check out Barnard’s Textbook Affordability Page
- Go to Ombuds

GRADE CONCERNS
- Research Barnard’s grading grievance process
- Speak with your professor or TA
- Meet with your academic advisor
- Request a peer tutor, writing fellow, or speaking fellow
- Speak with class dean
- Speak with department chair
- Contact the Associate Dean for Student Success

COURSE MATERIAL
- Speak with your professor or TA
- Meet with your academic advisor
- Consult with a 3rd party: CEP staff, advisor, or trusted professor
- Speak with class dean
- Speak with department chair

COURSE EXPECTATIONS
- Speak with your professor or TA
- Meet with your academic advisor
- Consult with a 3rd party: CEP staff, advisor, or trusted professor
- Speak with class dean
- Speak with department chair
- Contact the Office of Non-Discrimination and Title IX

THIS RESOURCE WAS CREATED BY HANA RIVERS ’20, POST BACC FELLOW AT THE CENTER FOR ENGAGED PEDAGOGY
The FLI Partnership Library is a part of the Barnard Library dedicated to lending textbooks to and in collaboration with first generation and/or low-income undergraduate students. Materials are added to the collection based on an assessment of required courses at Barnard. FLI mostly focuses on expensive textbooks for STEM and language learning classes.

The Ombuds Office is available as a campus-wide resource to assist faculty, students, and staff by providing a confidential, informal, and impartial environment in which possible options for dealing with variety of Barnard-related issues and concerns can be explored. Ombuds staff are not mandated reporters and your information will remain confidential and will not be shared with Title IX.

The Office of Nondiscrimination and Title IX prohibits sex-based and other kinds of discrimination at Barnard. Title IX operates by responding, informing, supporting, and empowering students to consider immediate responses to discrimination as well as build awareness, advocacy, and healing.

Class Deans support students with course planning and making degree progress towards graduation, and is a helpful resource for students who may be struggling personally or academically. The deans provide information and advice to students so that they will be able to consider a full range of academic opportunities.

The Center for Accessibility Resources and Disability Services (CARDS) is the focal point for meeting the needs of all Barnard community members with disabilities. CARDS will welcome you, learn about your circumstances, and provide assistance with your access needs, academic or otherwise.

The Center for Engaged Pedagogy (CEP) works with both faculty and students to advocate for teaching and learning as joint, transformative, and inclusive processes. If you have concerns about your learning experience at Barnard, you can book office hours to consult with a CEP staff member on how to move forward.

Still not sure where to go? Email the DEI cabinet at dei@barnard.edu